Five Year

THE EIGHTH GRADE CLASS, in this year of ORIENTATION, begins their five year ascent toward graduation. A great part of this first year is spent in becoming acquainted with the administration and curriculum of the school. Social horizons are enriched and broadened as students from Triplett and New Market meet, work together, and strive to become an integral part of the school. This year is a beginning, a beginning which will lead these students through years of preparation and ultimately to graduation.

FOR THE FRESHMEN, this is a year of INITIATION. Last year they were introduced to Stonewall. This year they must adjust to the policies of the school and begin to participate in the many aspects of school life. As freshmen, they are an accepted part of the student body. They can begin to be active in sports and clubs. The decisions they make concerning courses of study and extra-curricular activities in this first actual year of high school will influence their remaining high school years.

THE SOPHOMORES have reached the midpoint of their high school life. This is a year of ACCLIMATION. They are becoming accustomed to the various facets of school life, and thus they take a more active part in all the school activities.

Graduation

Preparation

Many of them are involved in sports and others are actively participating in one or more clubs. They have decided definitely what courses to follow, and they are now an established part of school life. With only two years remaining, they are well on their way toward graduation.

FOR THE JUNIORS, this is a year filled with new experiences. Many of the students are taking science and math courses in PREPARATION for graduation. Already they are thinking about college and careers. Junior year, however, is not one dedicated entirely to studying. The class works together in presenting a play and giving a prom for the seniors. This final year as underclassmen is truly an exciting one.

SENIORS: behind them are the years of ORIENTATION, INITIATION, ACCLIMATION, and PREPARATION. They are the five year Generals. Having entered Stonewall in 1959, the year of its completion, the present senior class has grown with the school. They have worked together until they have become a class, not in name only, but as a single functioning unit. After five years of studying and developing, they have attained their goal: GRADUATION. With these years of preparation, they must face the challenges of business, marriage, or college.

Dedication

The Class dedicates the Jacksonian Heritage Coach Jim

The fifth edition of the JACKSONIAN HERITAGE is dedicated to the man who has made the reputation of the Generals known throughout the state by leading them in battle on the football field and on the basketball court. We are proud to present the 1964 yearbook to James O'Dell, head coach at Stonewall Jackson.

It should be noted that O'Dell-coached teams at Stonewall Jackson have an excellent won and lost percentage AND the respect from coaches and players in the District.

Mr. O'Dell has done very well in Stonewall Jackson athletics, coming at a time when football was being played for the first time in consolidated high schools in Shenandoah County. He succeeded admirably in introducing the pig-skin to the maroon and white clad Generals and in compiling a winning record in his three seasons as head football coach.

When it comes to coaching basketball, there aren't many who can boast a record that compares of 1964 1964 to O'Dell

to Coach O'Dell's. In four years, he has coached the Generals to two successive District 10, Group II Championships (in 1961-62 and 1962-63) and led them to the State Semi-finals in 1961-62. The other two years his team lost in the semi-finals by a total of four points. His 1962-63 basketball team compiled a better record than any other team at Stonewall Jackson with 19 wins and three losses.

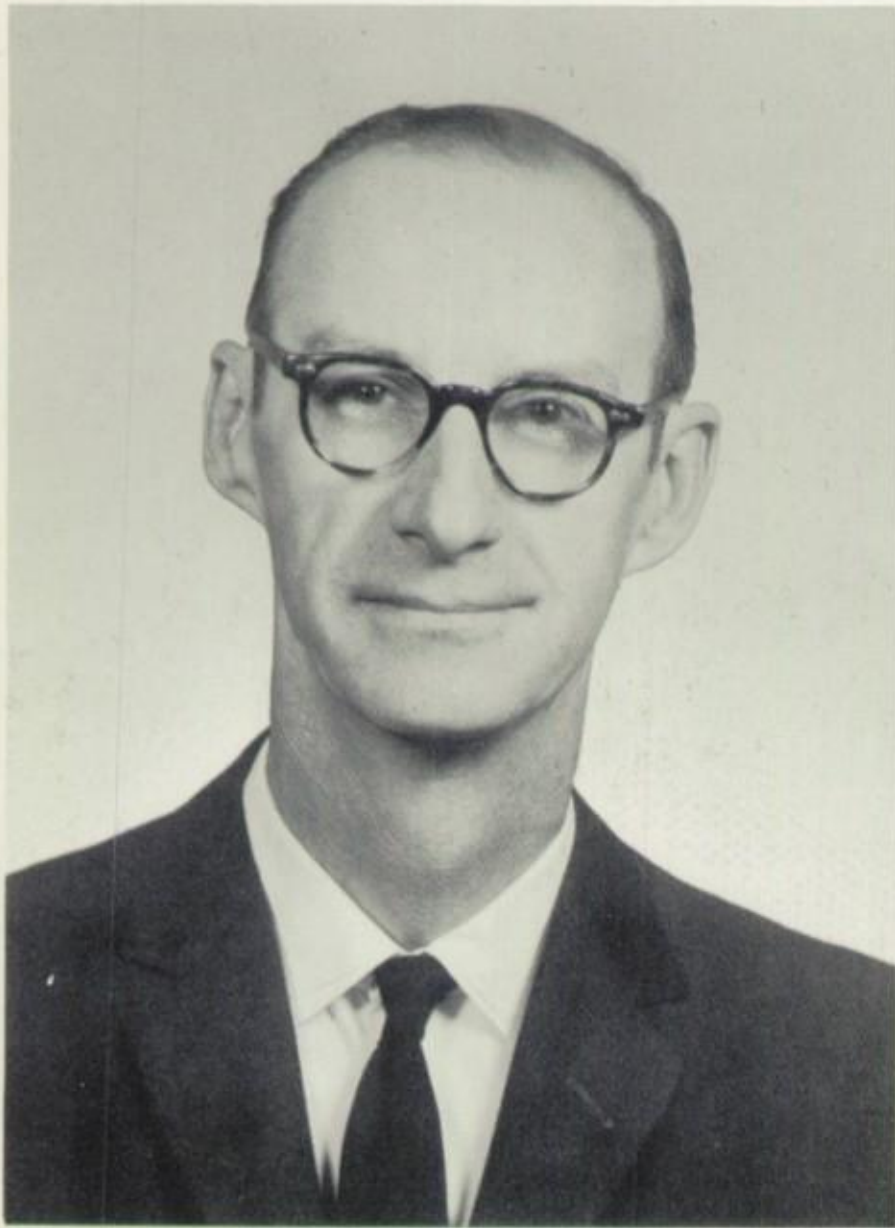

Coach O'Dell follows a simple, if not easy, rule of trying to instill in the players' minds the feeling that each game is an entity in itself, and that what has gone on before and what may be coming in the next weeks have nothing to do with the game at hand. His secret formula? He wears the same red bowtie to almost all of his ball games; and, he never breaks up a winning combination.

"Coach," as he is called by his players, is truly a leader in athletics. His sportsmanship, his fairness, and his all out effort to win stimulate his teams to top performances.

Jerry Dellinger

Superintendent of Shenandoah County Schools

Woodrow W. Robinson, King College,
A.B., D. Ed., Duke University, M.A.

I wish to commend the annual staff, the senior class, the sponsors, and all others who have had a part in the preparation and formulation of this excellent yearbook. May it serve as a reminder of your high school days and as an expression of your school experiences.

I wish to express to the Seniors of 1964 my sincere pleasure in your many accomplishments to date and a fervent hope that the fine qualities, which you have exhibited in the past, will continue to serve as the guiding influence in your life as you continue your education or as you enter the field of vocational employment. The willingness to work, the desire to learn, a concern for our fellowman, the desire to do what is right and honest, and the willingness to seek spiritual guidance, are characteristics which will insure success and happiness.

W. W. Robinson

Mrs. Sallie Mathews, Clerk of the Shenandoah County School Board

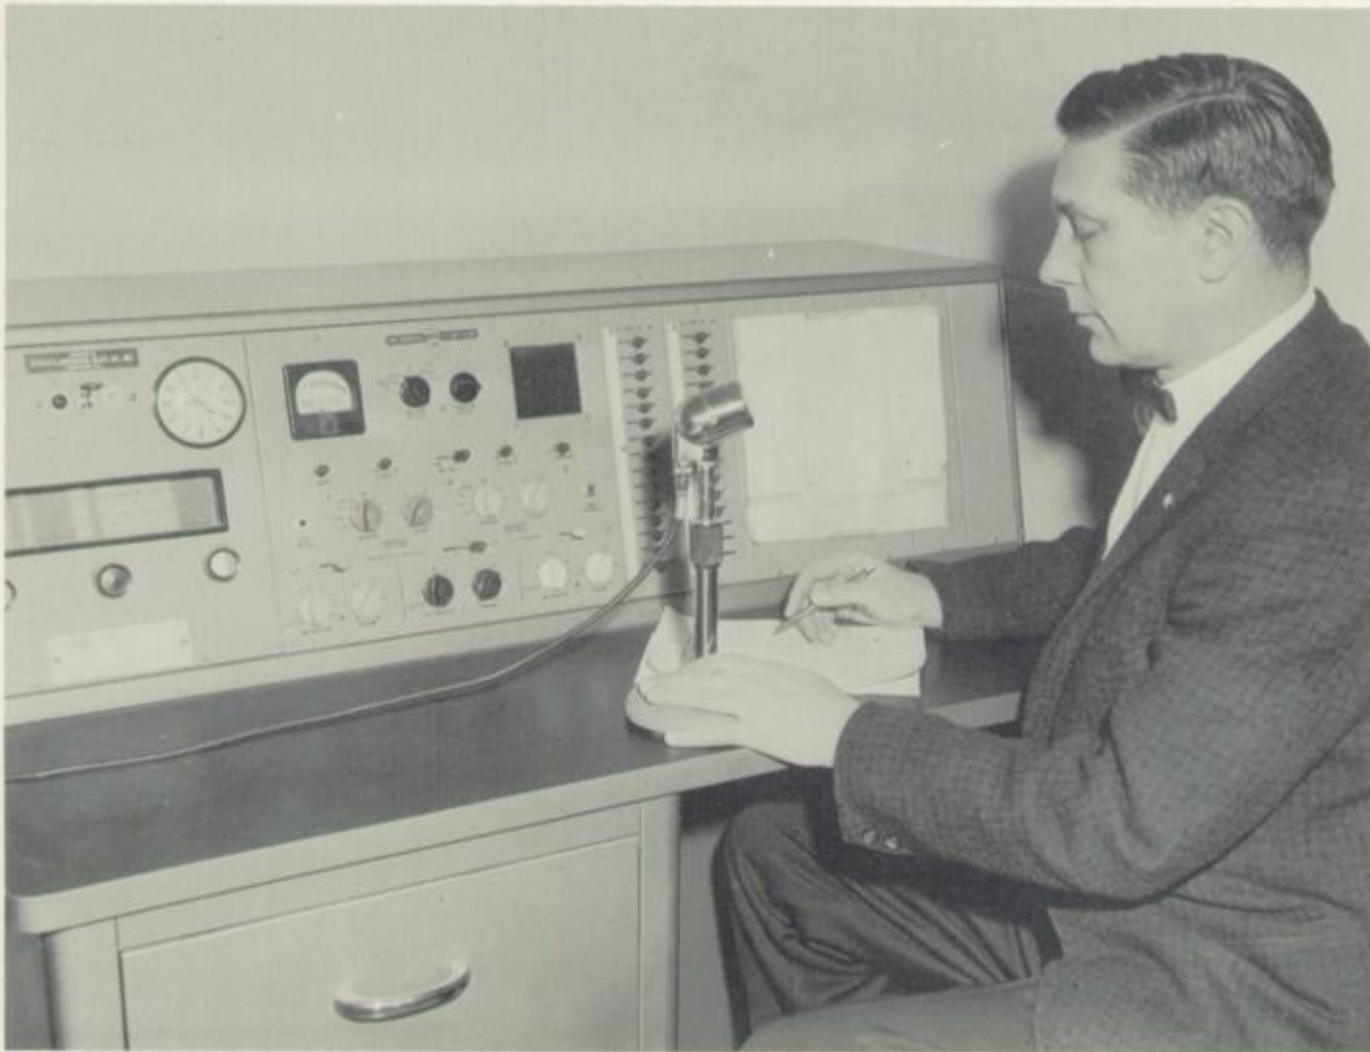

Mr. Robinson spends much time working at his desk in the Woodstock office.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

AUTHORITY

Administration

Mr. Thomas L. Snyder, B.S., M.ED., Miami University, Oxford, Ohio

In the brief history of Stonewall Jackson High School, you have the unique distinction of being the first graduating class that matriculated as eighth graders. During the five intervening years since you first entered this school, your worthy ambitions, aspirations, and achievements in all phases of school life have been significantly instrumental in establishing the character of your school. You have set a precedent of growth that should be a challenge to all who follow.

"THE EGG AND I"

Don MacDonald, who didn't have much,
Bought a farm with chickens and such.
He bought it unseen, taking their word,
But it turned out to be completely absurd;

For to the dismay of his two girls and wife
The farm was a setting for a miserable life.
Would you believe it? There's no bath or phone, and his daughters must do all the farm work alone.

They threatened to leave him alone with his chickens,
But life by himself would be mighty slim
pickin's.
So they stuck with it at a personal cost,
Cause still in the end-the hen is boss.

Senior Class Night 1964

We Made A Run;

Now Let's Win The Game

Graduation

Graduation activities for the Class of 1964 officially began on May 20, when at the annual Awards Assembly many seniors received recognition for outstanding skills and achievements demonstrated during their five years at Stonewall Jackson.

On May 22, the Senior Class Night program was built around the class motto, "We've made a run; now let's win the game!" The use of the baseball motif added a spirit of fun and informality to the 1964 Class Night activities.

Baccalaureate services were held at Stonewall Jackson on Sunday, June 7, with the Reverend Reid Digges, pastor of the Manor Memorial Methodist Church, New Market, addressing the seniors. He spoke ably on the major idea of the class of 1964, of their being "Five Star Generals."

Graduation of the Class of 1964 was completed on Tuesday, June 9. An important guest at these final exercises was Mr. Harry F. Byrd, Jr., who awarded Jean Clanahan, valedictorian of the class, the DAILY NEWS RECORD Leadership Award for Shenandoah County. Other members of the class, all winners of local scholarships, were recognized by Mr. Thomas L. Snyder. Mr. Gordon D. Bowman, Chairman of the Shenandoah County School Board, assisted by Mr. Snyder, awarded diplomas to the first "Five Year Generals."

The Record: Five Star Generals

The following events are considered by the senior class to be some of the highlights of their five years at Stonewall Jackson:

ACTIVITIES

DIVERSITY

Student Cooperative Association

ADVISORS: Mr. Hawkins, Mr. Crantz, President: Jean Clanahan, Vice President: Brenda Olinger, Secretary: Donna Polk, Treasurer: Barbara Whistler.

Activities

"Attaining New Heights" . . . It was with this idea in mind that the Stonewall Jackson Student Cooperative Association met at the beginning of the 1963-64 school term. Committees were appointed to work toward accomplishing the goals set for the year.

Early in October, representatives attended the district meeting at Warren County High School where they participated in discussions aimed at finding solutions to SCA problems.

The Future Teachers of America, a new club at Stonewall, was chartered.

The SCA sponsored a fund raising drive for the county scholarship foundation. Donating more than $100 made it possible for Stonewall to have a student on the Board of Directors for the second year. Irene Rosen was elected.

Activities

The SCA also had charge of the March of Dimes campaign. They sponsored "blanket throws" and were co-sponsors of a county drive.

In March, a bus took Generals and Falcons to the Miller and Rhodes High School Forum in Roanoke.

A special assembly program was given at Triplett and New Market Elementary Schools to acquaint students there with the functions and purposes of the SCA.

In the spring, the SCA sponsored Senior Day and Teacher Appreciation Day.

The janitors were given special recognition and a gift of cigars in one of the assemblies.

Cynthia Bird and Joe Rhodes represented Stonewall at the state SCA convention at John Marshall High School in Richmond.

Officers for 1964-65 were elected and installed.

Your support has made my year as SCA president a profitable one. Remember your SCA provides a challenge that each of you must accept.

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of girls studying homemaking in the United States.

Ninety-six girls were members of the Stonewall Jackson Chapter of the F.H.A. during the 1963-64 school session. Of these four senior girls, Anna Barb, Jane Dodson, Sandra Good, and Carolyn Showman, completed four years of active membership in the organization.

The executive committee of the chapter met before the beginning of the school term to plan its program of work for the ensuing year. The objectives, "Discovering Myself and My Worth to Others" and "Launching Good Citizenship Through Homemaking" were chosen.

A variety of activities concerning homemaking served as topics for the organization's monthly meetings. In November, a gift wrapping demonstration was given by Mrs. Georgiana Shaw, a local Civic leader.

The new year began with the annual joint meeting with the Future Farmers of America. Mr. Carl Coiner, County Agent, showed slides of his trip to Russia. Eighth grade girls were given a special invitation to the February meeting so that they might consider joining the F.H.A. next year. In March, Miss Martha Seig, Professor of Home Economics at Madison College, spoke to the club on "The Values of Buying." New officers were elected in April and installed in May.

Throughout the year, F.H.A. girls served at banquets held at Stonewall. In fact, the highlight of the year was for the F.H.A. girls a banquet. The annual Mother-Daughter Banquet was held in April with a Miss F.H.A. for the year being announced for the first time.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of prospective farmers, who will in turn be able to produce better crops.

The membership in the 1963-64 chapter of the Future Farmers of America at Stonewall Jackson consisted of 66 boys from grades nine through twelve. Of this group, five seniors, Robert Barb, Curtis Delawder, Eddie Garber, David Miller, and James Zerkel, have completed four years of active membership in the F.F.A.

The 1963-64 term was an active one for the organization. During the fall and winter the F.F.A. boys vaccinated 207 pigs and hogs against disease. 143 calves also received vaccines as a result of this project. In terms of projects in shop work, the F.F.A. classes were responsible for constructing various types of equipment for use by Physical Education classes at Stonewall.

Most of this work was done during the early and middle periods of the school year.

Spring, 1964 brought further activities to the F.F.A. members. The club planted 4000 trees on farms as a part of soil conservation projects. 400 pounds of seeds were sown on farms of club members for the benefit of game birds and animals. Shop work continued with members of the F.F.A. being responsible for the construction of the attractive frame for the portrait of Stonewall Jackson now displayed in the school lobby. Additional spring shop work involved building storage cabinets for the shop itself.

A successful year ended with plans being completed by six club members for their participation in the State Future Farmers of America Rally to be held in Blacksburg in June.

Christmas Assembly Be Held

The annual Christmas Assembly will be held Friday morning, December 20. Mr. Lyndon Orebaugh, director, reported that the assembly will play several selections of Christmas songs. The Glee Club will sing some old, new, and different Christmas carols. A highlight of the program will be devoted to audience participation. Parents, friends and patrons are cordially invited to attend the Christmas Assembly, December 20.

were excused from school. Jerry Poole killed the deer weighing the most, a 136 pound, 6-point buck. Merle Thorpe killed the deer having the most points, 8, and weighing 133 pounds. Gary Hawkins also got a nice buck, a 7-pointer, and weighing 110 pounds. Steven Spitler killed the biggest doe, weighing 101 pounds. Other successful hunters were: Billy Long, a 63 pound spike buck; Ronald Zirkle, a 80 pound doe; Danny Painter, a 57 pound spike buck; Billy Steadman, an 80 pound spike buck; Dwight Hansberger, a 79 pound spike buck; Terry Sulphin, a 95 pound doe; Doland Barb, a 57 pound doe; Gerald Gum, a 3 point, 110 pound buck, and Gary Phillips, "a big 'un."

(Congratulations, boys, on your fine hunting. In case some of you have any extra venison, pass some our way.)

Dr. Caldwell Speaks To PTA

"Knowing our Youth" was the theme of a talk given by Dr. Charles Caldwell, president of the Virginia Congress of Parents and Teachers, when he spoke to the Stonewall parents at a meeting on November 26. Dr. Caldwell discussed the dual problem of the parents and the school.

We Won!!

THE CONTINUING TRADITION

With Marilyn Wellard reigning as queen, Stonewall Jackson proudly presented another fabulous Homecoming weekend. Friday night, the Generals overwhelmed the Rams of Strasburg with a 20-13 victory. The outstanding display of teamwork clenched the win for the Generals.

Saturday night, the Homecoming Dance was held in the gym with music furnished by the Cloud 9 Combo.

The 1963 Homecoming was a true part of the "continuing tradition."

Champs: The "Hawks"

The Championship Game

This year a total of 97 boys were divided into twelve intramural teams with the faculty men making up the thirteenth. The games played covered a three week period from which only the faculty emerged unbeaten. The "Hawks" were second with a ten and three record. Then came the "Rippers," "Mountaineers," "Blue Devils," "Flintstones," "Spiders," "Midgets," "Searchers," "427's," "Commandos," and "Bob Cats."

Coach Nat Cecchini was high individual scorer with an 18 point average, while Ned Ruby was second with a 17.2 average.

The Championship Game between the "Hawks" and the faculty, played before the entire school on April 10, resulted in a final victory for the faculty team.

The Threshing Machine

"Searchers" and "Spiders"

Track

The 1964 trackmen were the best track team that Stonewall Jackson has ever had. What started as a routine season ended with many new school records being set. The Stonewall trackmen scored more points at the District Meet than in any previous year. They also broke nine of the 14 standing school records. David Miller broke the record in the 880 yard run while Ken Silvius took the new record for the mile run, Danny Rice, the broad jump, Curtis Barb, the shot put, Mike Williamson, the high and low hurdles. Rhodes, Rice, Arehart and Baker broke the school record in the 880 relay while Rhodes, Williamson, Myers, and Wills established a new record in the mile relay. Baker set a new record for the pole vault.

The Trackmen are yet undefeated on our home track. This year they defeated both Luray and Strasburg. The team participated in five track meets and made a better than average showing for the school. Aside from meets with Luray and Strasburg, they attended the Rotary Relays, the District Meet, and the County Track meet in Woodstock.

Those who placed at the District Meet were Danny Rice, 3rd in the Broad Jump, Mike Williamson, 3rd in the high hurdles, and the 880 relay team placed 4th. At the County Meet, Ken Silvius broke the school record for the mile, establishing a record that will probably stand for some time.

The First Five Year Generals Retire

Fellow Students:

We, the members of the yearbook staff, hope that this book will serve to bring you many pleasant memories of the 1963-64 school.

As Five Year Generals, we have been a part of Stonewall Jackson from its beginning. We hope that the 1963-64 JACKSONIAN HERITAGE has benefitted from the five complete years that we have spent here.

Patricia Sue Miller

Yearbook Editor

Fellow SCA Members:

Serving you as president of your SCA has been a privileged experience. I am grateful to you for giving me this opportunity. I feel that active participation in the Student Cooperative Association can do more for the individual than any other extra-curricular activity.

I hope that you will remember that the SCA is your voice in school affairs, and will continue to make it a strong effective voice. I challenge you to strive constantly for the attainment of new heights of excellence in every facet of your school life.

Jean Clanahan

SCA President

Fellow Generals:

During the past 900 days, our halls rang with laughter and the school throbbed with activity; but, the main reason we were here was to prepare ourselves for one goal--graduation from high school.

This year and during each of the five years that the class of 1964 was at Stonewall, you, the students, have made our school the center of intellectual, social and athletic life.

R. Ned Ruby

Miscellaneous Snapshots

The First Five-year Generals retire but Stonewall Jackson High School will continue to grow and collect honors for its own sake as it did during the 1963-64 school session:

Navy gives S. J. H. S. model submarine

In a special assembly on December 18, 1963 the United States Department of the Navy presented the school with a two-foot cut-away model of the Polaris submarine, STONEWALL JACKSON.

Presentation was made by Commander Roby, United States Navy, Washington, D. C., who was accompanied by a 1/C Torpedoman and two chief mates.

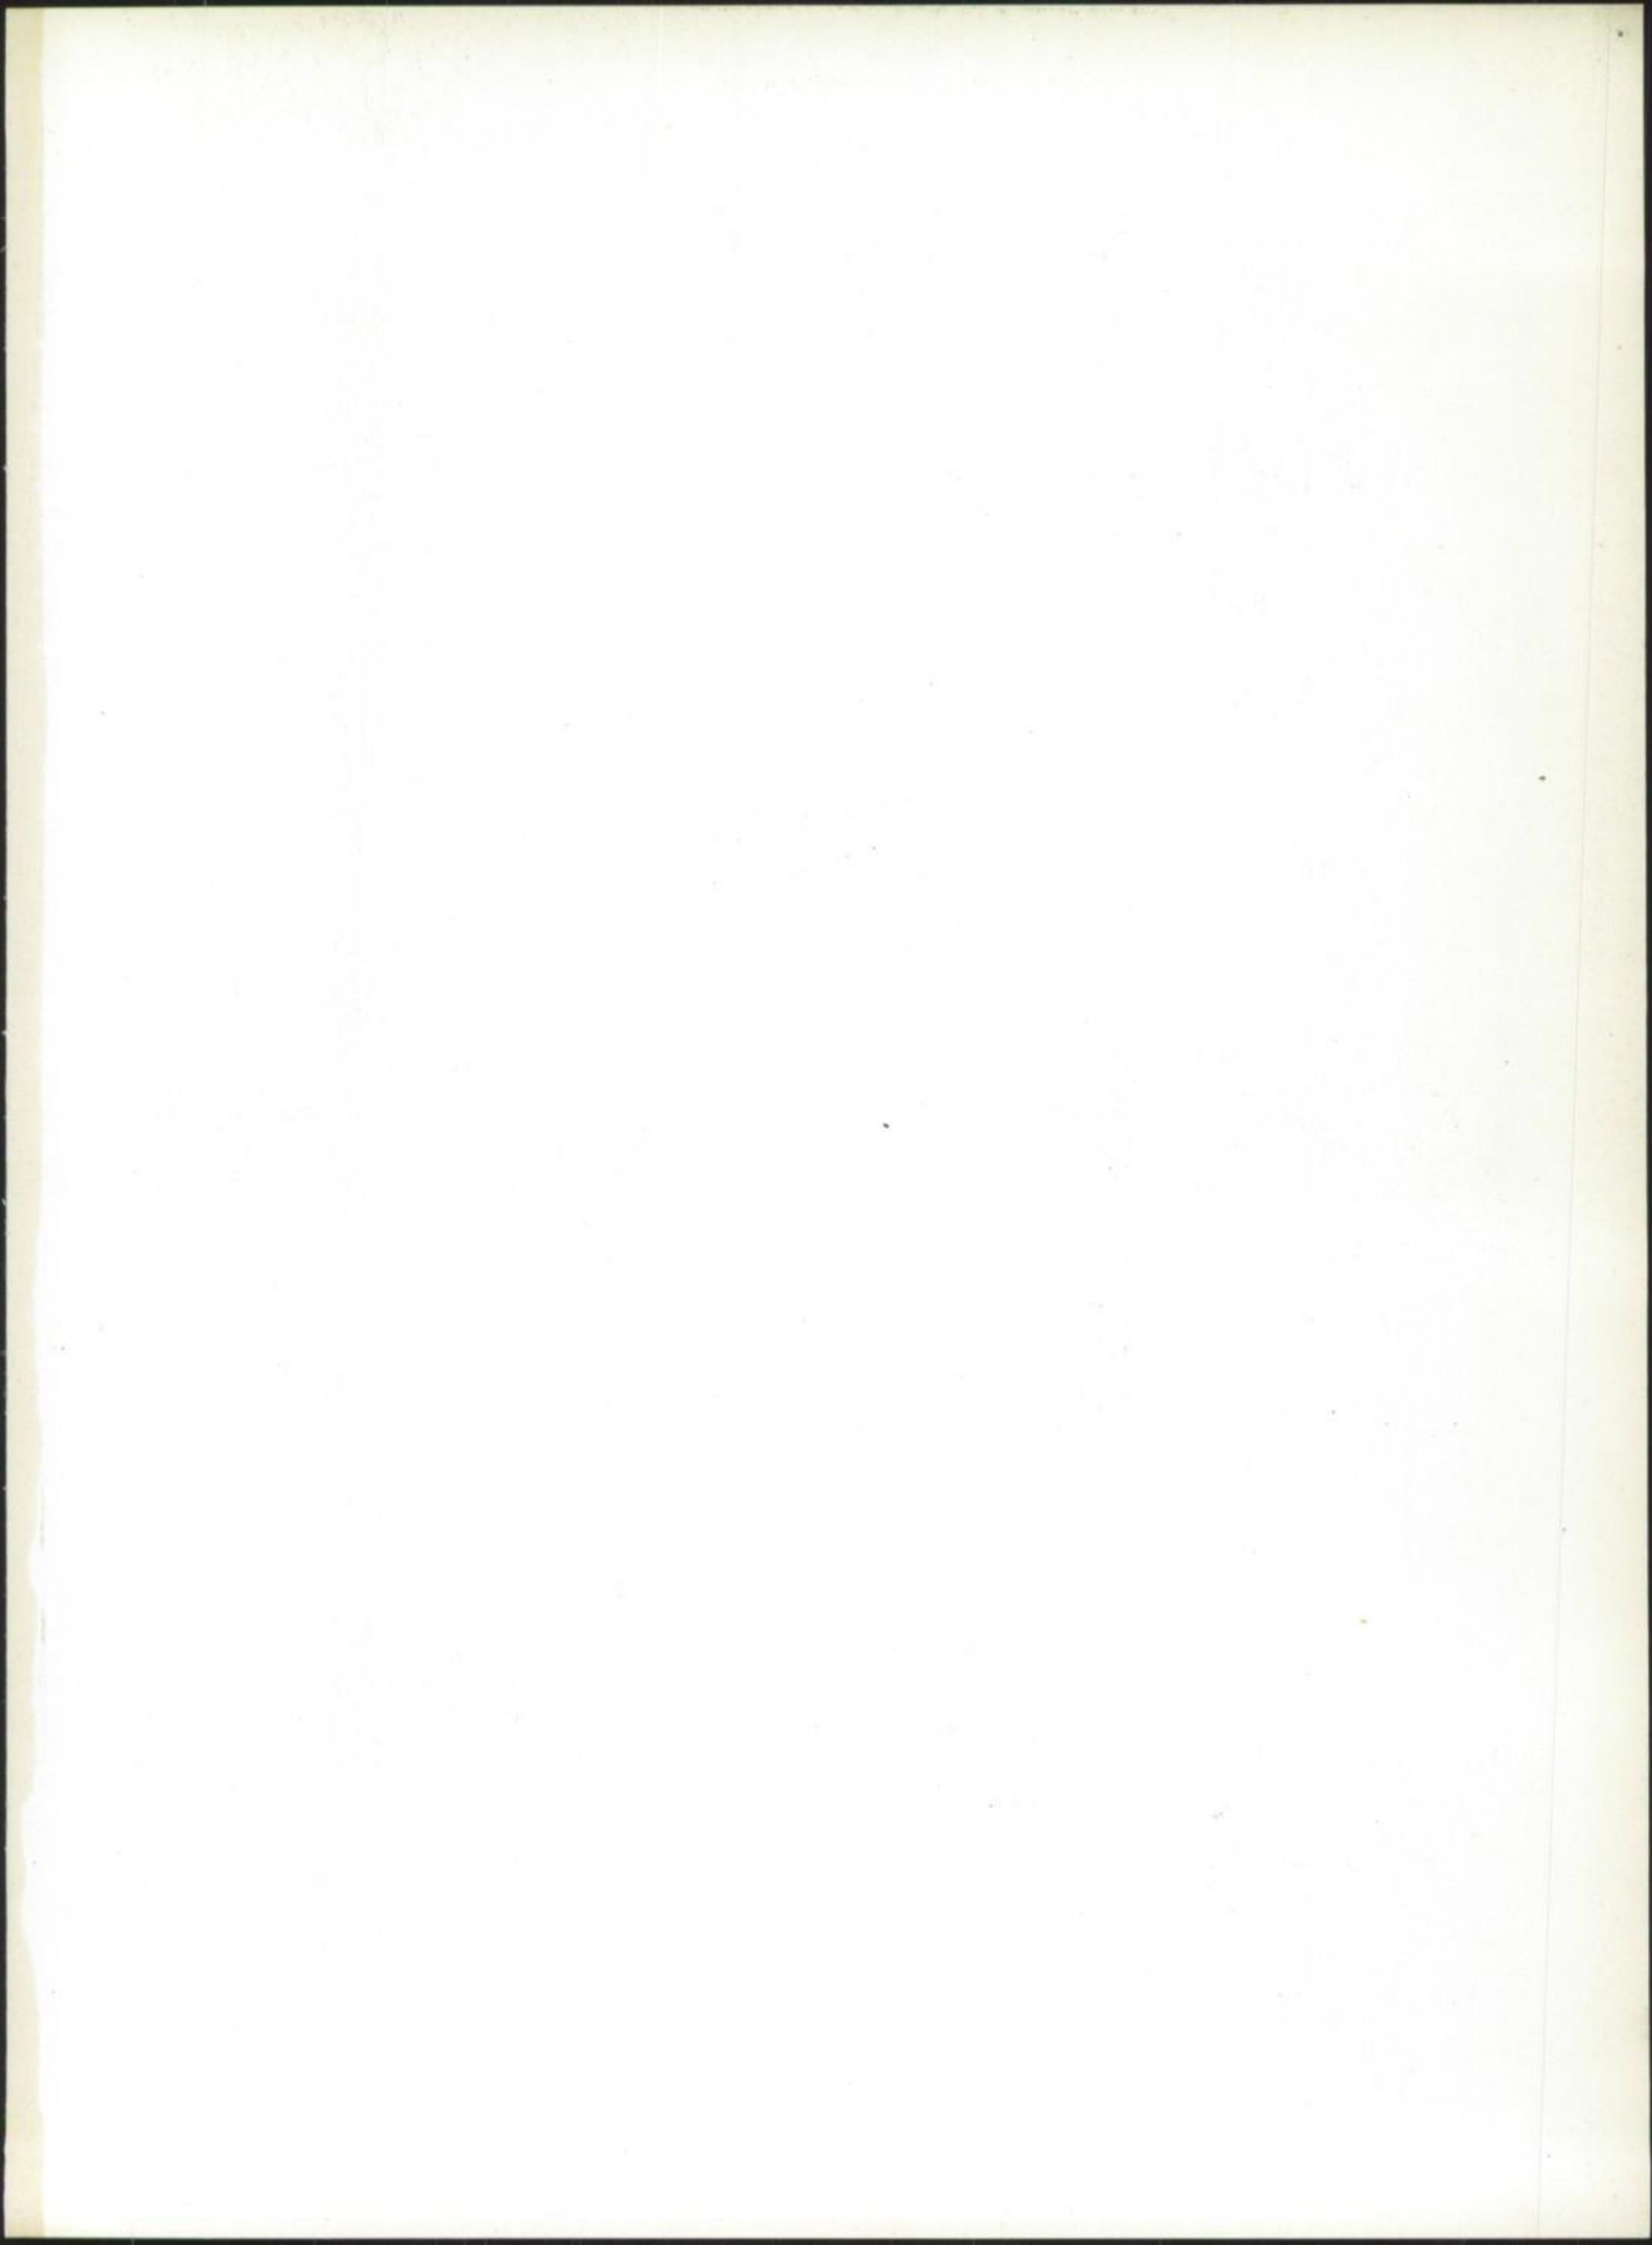

In addition Stonewall Jackson High School received a letter from the Secretary of Navy, Fred Koch, and a colored Photograph of the STONEWALL JACKSON signed by her two crews.

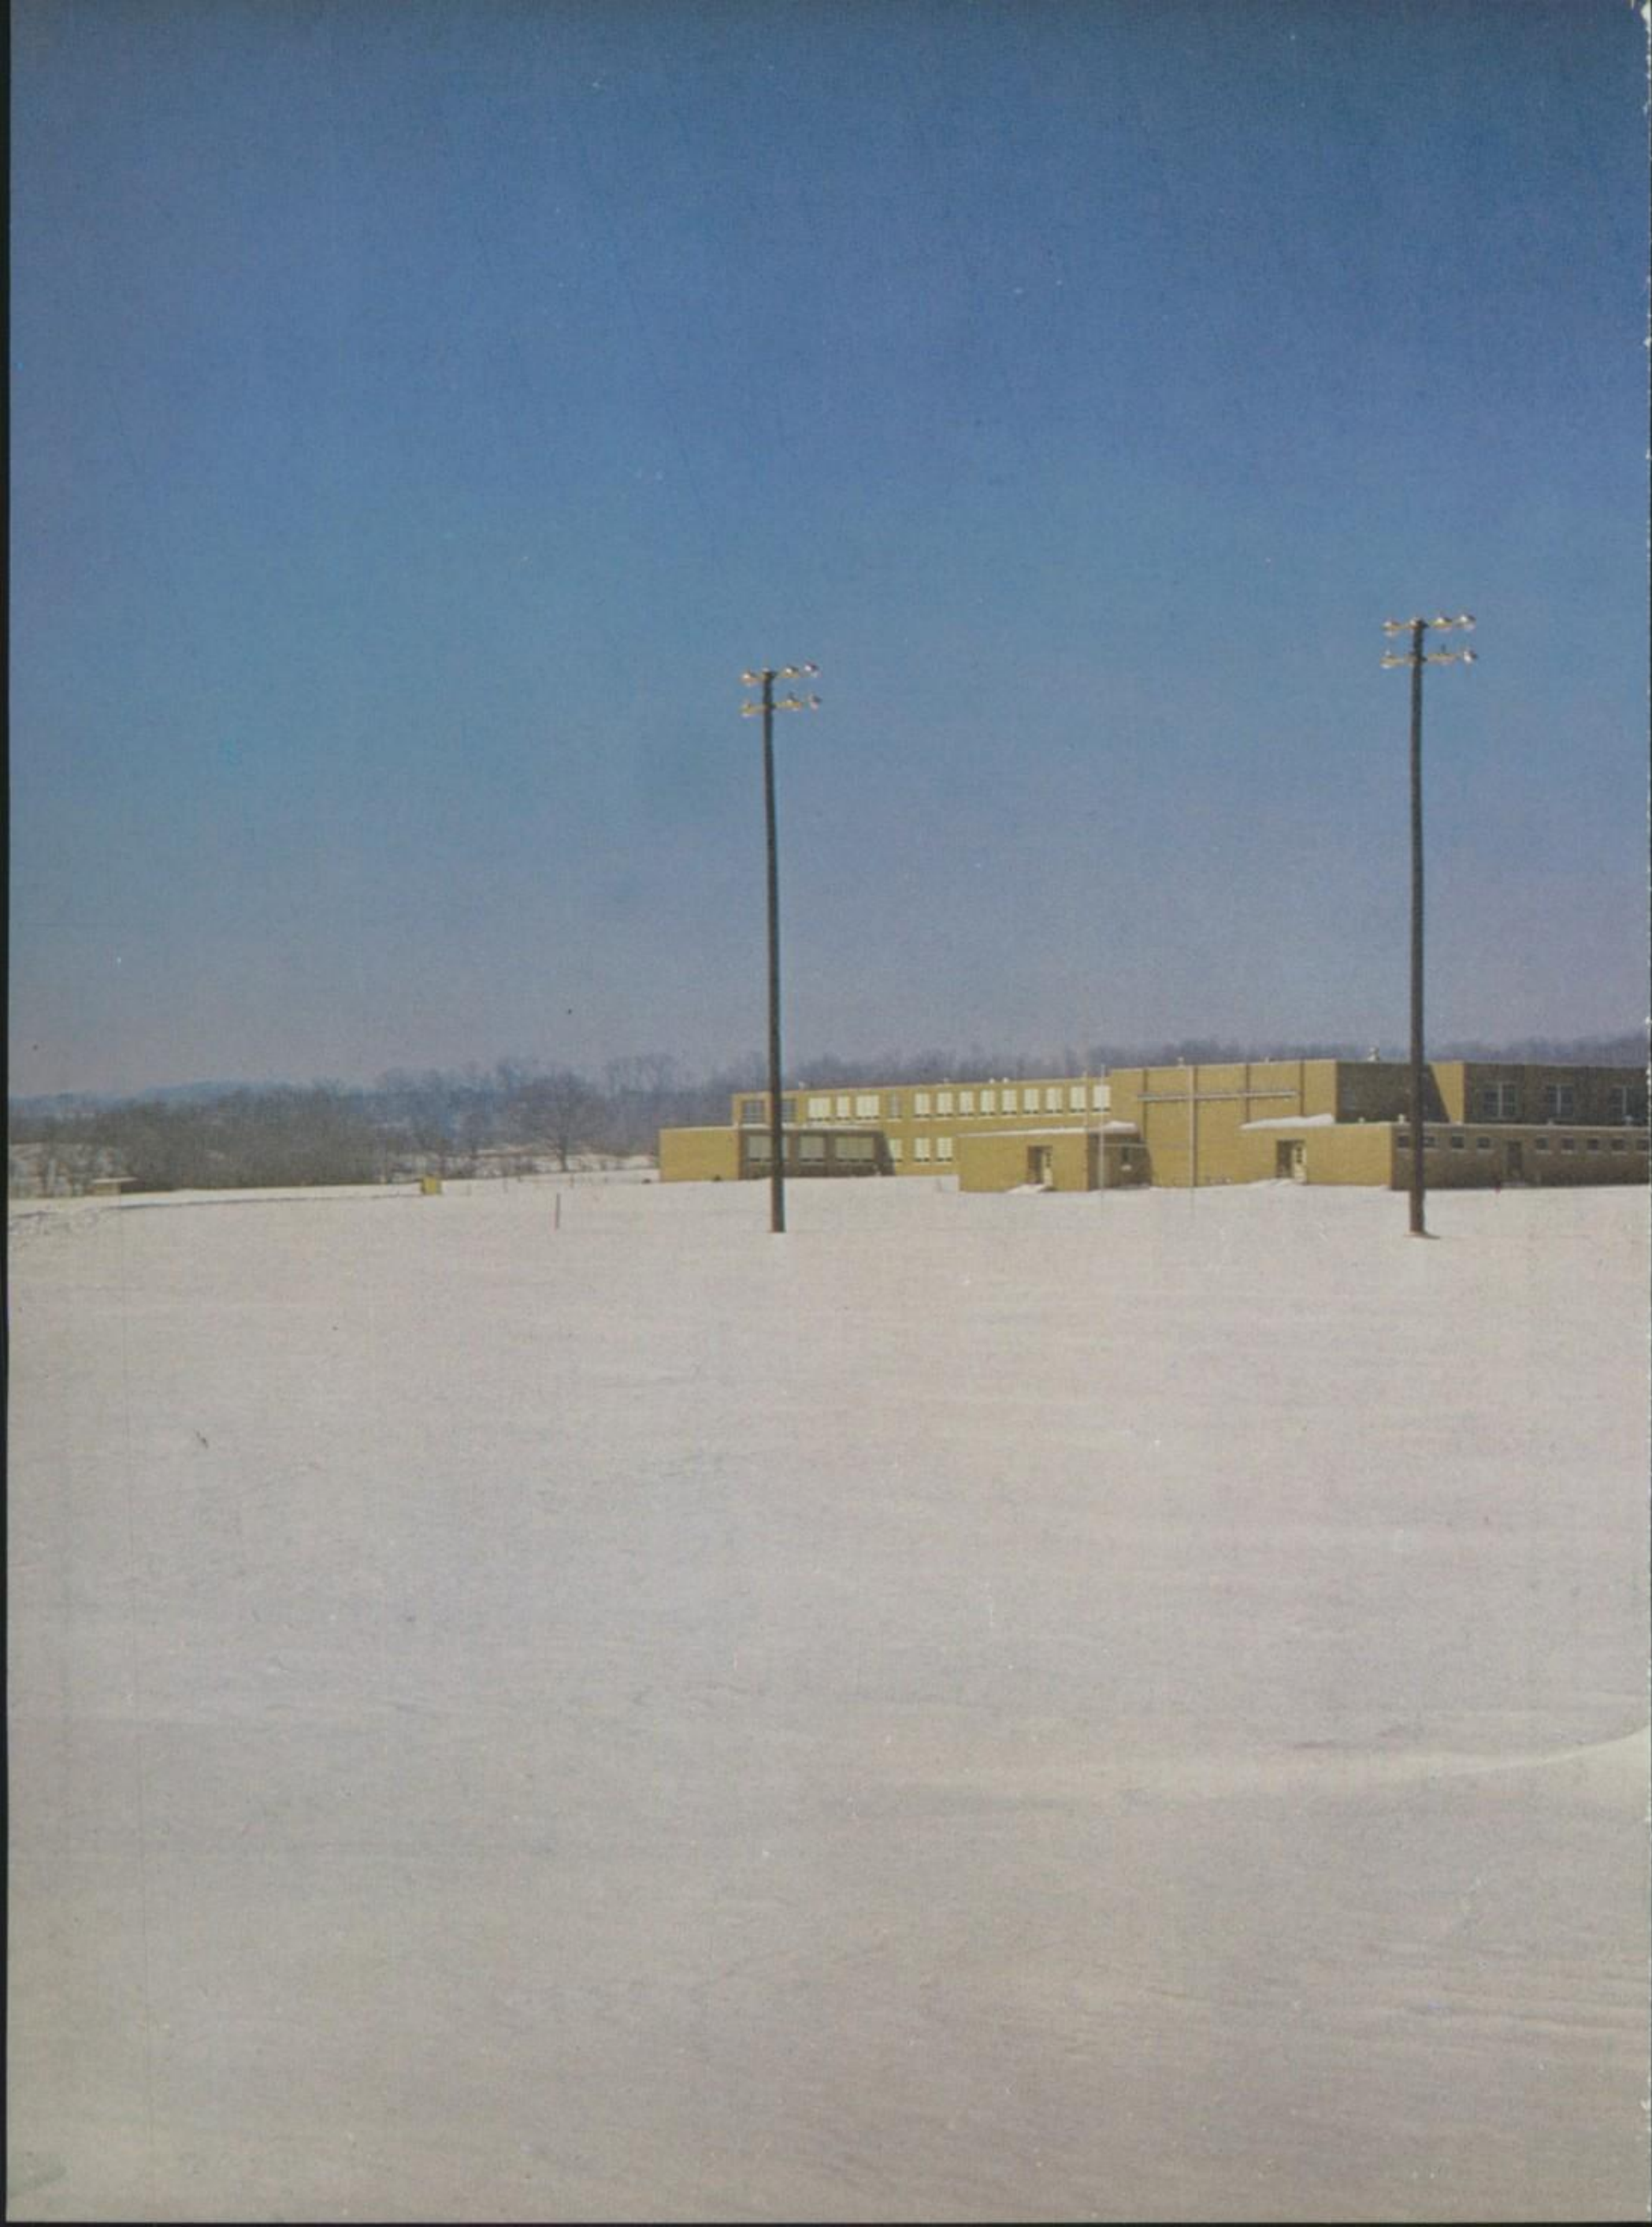

"Stonewall" Jackson's Portrait presented

During the 1963-64 school session Stonewall Jackson High School was presented with a portrait of "Stonewall" Jackson.

Mr. James Donson of Broadway painted the 23x30 canvass which was framed by F F A shop classes and hung in the main hall of the school.
